

Team Architect® - Creating High Performing Teams Certification

Does your organization know what it takes to create effective, high-performing teams ?

Organizations are increasingly realizing the relationship of effective work teams to business success – jobs are getting bigger, organizational structures are more complex, and the growing number of multi-national companies is increasing the need for virtual team collaboration.

Course Details:

One-day class in San Diego, CA
8:30am–4:30pm

This workshop can also be held at your site. Please contact us for more info.

Purpose:

The Team Architect® is designed for teams that are critical to setting and executing strategy. Teams like management teams, project teams, cross functional teams, and virtual work teams. Whether it's a newly formed team or a team that has existed for years, or a low performing team or a top-performing team, the research and experience behind the Team Architect® can be applied to maximize team effectiveness and reach peak team performance.

Objectives:

At the completion of the Team Architect® certification, participants will be able to:

- Define teams, identify team characteristics and four basic types of teams
- Promote a consistent and universal language around what constitutes a high-performing team
- Articulate why teams are important today and why teamwork remains the ultimate competitive advantage
- Identify the five stages of team development : forming, storming, norming, performing and adjourning
- Convey the T7 Team Effectiveness model and the key facets that influence the performance of work teams
